

Air Force Officers' Spouses' Club of Washington, D. C.
Current College Student Scholarship Application
2021-2022

General Information/Criteria:

1. The Air Force Officers' Spouses' Club (AFOSC) offers merit-based scholarships to eligible dependent children who are current college students pursuing undergraduate studies at an accredited college or university during the 2021-22 academic school year.
2. Scholarships are awarded in accordance with the AFOSC Scholarship Committee Policies and Procedures.
3. Selection criteria may include all or some of the following: academic achievement; standardized test scores; extracurricular activities (e.g. school and/or community athletics, volunteering, work experience, clubs, etc.); work history, citizenship, leadership roles, awards/honors, character references and personal essay.
4. The applicant is responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information and official documents.
5. Awards are granted without regard to USAF member's rank or applicant's race, gender, ethnicity, religion, or disability.
6. Applications must be submitted by than March 1, 2021 via the online application. You will receive a copy of your completed application.
7. Applicants will be notified by e-mail of the results.
8. The AFOSC Scholarship Committee invites individuals with strong academic backgrounds from the community to judge the application packets. Judges and their dependents are not eligible to apply for the scholarship. Judges may not be members of the AFOSC.
9. Please see our FAQ page at the end of the application packet. Please e-mail additional questions to AFOSCScholarships@gmail.com

Eligibility: Each applicant must meet the following requirements:

1. Applicants must be currently enrolled in an accredited college or university and will be attending an accredited college or university during the 2021-2022 academic school year.
2. Each applicant must be a legal military dependent child of an active duty, reserve, guard, retired, MIA/POW, deceased officer or enlisted member of the United States Air Force.
3. As of May 31, 2021, applicants must be at least 17 years old, and not older than 22 years old.
4. Applicants for academic awards must have a minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA based on a 4.0 scale.
5. The AFOSC Scholarship Committee members and their dependents are not eligible to apply for this scholarship.
6. Applicants must live in the National Capitol Region to include Stafford County to apply.

Limitations:

1. Scholarship funds are to be used during the 2021-2022 academic year for undergraduate studies only.
2. All funds received shall be applied to tuition and/or associated university fees/costs administered by an accredited college or university. These costs may include books, fees, room or board, but may not be used to cover fees from previous academic years, penalty fees or disenrollment fees.
3. Payment of scholarship awards will be made directly to the selected school. The recipient must provide the Scholarship Committee with the name and address of the school the recipient will attend. This information, along with the Enrollment Verification Form must be postmarked by 1 October 2021, or the award will be considered unclaimed.
4. The scholarship award, when combined with other scholarships, must not exceed the cost of tuition, fees, books, and room and board for the academic year. Any remaining funds at the end of the school year must be returned to the AFOSC Welfare Fund.
5. Students accepting an appointment to a military service academy, a 4 year full ROTC scholarship (most only pay for the academic portion) or a full scholarship (including the GI Bill) which pay 100% of the student's tuition, fees, books, room and board become ineligible for this award. Any applicant awarded an AFOSC Scholarship and intends to attend a military service academy or intends to use a full scholarship, must notify the AFOSC Scholarship Committee immediately and forfeit the AFOSC Scholarship. The AFOSC Scholarship will, in turn, be awarded to an alternate scholarship recipient.
6. Recipients who accept a scholarship from another military officers'/enlisted spouses' organization become ineligible for the AFOSC scholarship and must notify the AFOSC Scholarship committee immediately and forfeit the award. The AFOSC scholarship will, in turn, be awarded to an alternant scholarship recipient.
7. Prior recipients of an AFOSC Scholarship are not eligible to apply for or receive an AFOSC Scholarship for the 2021-2022 academic school year.

AFOSC COLLEGE STUDENT 2021 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

CERTIFICATION LETTER

I further certify that should I accept an Air Force Officers' Spouses' Club (AFOSC) Scholarship Award, I will abide by the following conditions:

1. Scholarship funds are to be used within the 2021-2022 academic year for undergraduate studies.
2. All funds received shall be applied to tuition and/or associated university costs administered by an accredited college or university. These costs may include books, fees, room or board but may not be used for past or current penalties or disenrollment fees.
3. I will have until 1 May 2021 to complete, sign and postmark a notice/acceptance of the award. In failing to do so, I will forfeit the award and it will, in turn, be awarded to an alternate applicant.
4. As a scholarship recipient, I must submit (postmarked) the name and address of the school I will attend for the 2021-2022 academic year along with the Enrollment Verification Form to the scholarship committee NLT 1 October 2021.
5. After receiving the notice of acceptance of award letter, and the Enrollment Verification Form, the scholarship award, along with a cover letter with the terms of the scholarship, will be mailed directly to the college or university.
6. The scholarship award, when combined with other scholarships, must not exceed the cost of tuition, fees, books, and room and board for the academic year. Any remaining funds must be returned to the AFOSC Welfare Fund as soon as possible.
7. If I accept an appointment to a military service academy, receive a full four year ROTC scholarship (most only pay for the academic portion), or a scholarship (including the GI Bill) which pays 100% of the student's tuition, books, room and board and academic fees, I will be ineligible for this AFOSC scholarship award.
8. If I accept a scholarship from another military officers' /enlisted spouses' organization, I will be ineligible for this AFOSC scholarship award.
9. I am a responsible citizen in good standing in the school and the community.
10. It is my responsibility to notify the AFOSC Scholarship Committee of any change of status (e.g., change of schools, change in address, etc.) Failure to do so may result in the forfeiture of my scholarship award.
11. Unclaimed funds as of 1 October 2021 revert to the AFOSC Welfare Fund.
12. If any of the above conditions are violated, scholarship funds must be returned to the AFOSC Welfare Fund.

I agree that my signature on this form will authorize the AFOSC Scholarship Chair to release this application, including GPA, reference letters, essays and transcript(s) to the Scholarship Committee, as needed.

I certify that all information in this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge, and the essay is entirely my own effort.

Frequently Asked Questions:

- 1. Is this scholarship only for officers? No, it is open to all ranks in the USAF.
- 2. Do you have to live in the DC area to apply? You must live in the National Capitol Region or in the following surrounding counties listed on application form.
- 3. My parent is in the Army, Navy, Marines or Coast Guard. Am I eligible to apply? No, this scholarship is only open to US Air Force dependents.
- 4. My stepparent is in the Air Force and I've lived with him/her for 7 years. Can I apply? No. You must be categorized as an Air Force dependent.
- 5. My parent works as a civilian on an Air Force Base. Can I apply? No, you are not a USAF dependent.
- 6. My parent served in the USAF for 7 years and got out. Am I eligible? No. Your parent is a proud USAF veteran, but you are no longer considered a dependent.
- 7. If I've previously won for another spouse club (eg: Scott OSC, McConnell OSC) can I apply and win for AFOSC? Yes, you can.
- 8. If I've previously won a scholarship from AFOSC or AFOWC can I apply again in a different category? No. Once you've won one of our scholarships, you cannot win again.
- 9. Can I apply for several different spouse club scholarships in the same year? Absolutely. Although our rules state that you may only win one spouse club scholarship. If you win for two clubs in the same year, you'll have to accept one and decline the other.
- 10. Can the check be written out to any other person/agency/landlord? No, the check will only be written to the University.
- 11. Can I send in my college board ACT/SAT scores for consideration? No, the AFOSC will not be considering ACT/SAT scores during the 2021-22 scholarship period.
- 12. Will you let me know if my application arrives? You will receive a confirmation for the submission of your online application from Part 1. However, well over 100 applications each year, we are busy processing the applications for judging so you may not receive confirmation for your emailed materials from part 2.
- 13. How do you notify the applicants? Recipients will be notified by email. Notifications will occur in April.
- 14. I'm a spouse and a college student. Can I fill out this application? College applications are for USAF dependent children who are in college. Spouse scholarships are not offered for the 2021-22 scholarship year.
